1. The earth be - longs to God our LORD And all
2. Who shall as - cend up - on God's hill And stand
3. He shall re - ceive a bless - ed gift, And right -
4. Lift up your heads, ye mas - sive gates, Lift up
5. Lift up your heads, ye mas - sive gates, Lift up the full - ness it con - tains, The world, and those who with - in His ho - ly place? The one who has pure eous - ness from his own God; His God is Ja - cob's your heads, e - ter - nal doors. The King of glo - ry

your heads, e - ter - nal doors. The King of glo - ry dwell be - low. The earth on seas is found - ed, hands and heart, All van - i - ty for - sak - ing, ho - ly God. This is the gen - er - a - tion

en - ters now. Who is the King of glo - ry?
en - ters now. Who is the King of glo - ry?

The world on floods is ground - ed.
In ly - ing not par - tak - ing.
That seeks out His sal - va - tion.
In bat - tle, song and sto - ry?
The LORD of hosts in glo - ry.
