1. The might - y God, Je - ho - vah, speaks And calls the earth from sea to sea;
2. He calls a - loud to heaven and earth That He may just - ly judge His own;
3. Hear, O my peo - ple, I will speak, A - gainst thee I will test - i - fy;
4. I will re - ceive from out thy fold No of - fering for my ho - ly shrine;
5. Be - hold, if I should hun - gry grow, I would not tell My need to thee,
6. Bringthou to God the gift of thanks, And pay thy vows to God Most High;

From beau - teous Zi - ion God shines forth, He comes and will not si - lent be;
My cho - sen saints to - geth - er bring Who sac - ri - fice to Me a lone;
Give ear to Me, O Is - ra - el, For God, thy cov - enant God, am I;
The cat - tle on a thou - sand hills And all the for - est beasts are Mine;
For all the world it - self is Mine, And all its wealth be - longs to me;
Call ye up - on my ho - ly Name In days when sore di - stress is nigh;

De - vour - ing flame be - fore Him goes And dark the tem - pest round Him grows.
The heavens His right - eous - ness de - clare, For God Him - self as Judge is there.
I do not spurn thy sac - ri - fice, Thy of - ferings are be - fore My eyes.
Each moun - tain bird to Me is known, What - ev - er roams the field I own.
Why should I aught of thee re - ceive, My thirst or hun - ger to re - lieve?
De - li - verance I will send to thee, And prai - ses though shalt give to Me.
